

The Breakfast Table Times

THE NEWS, MADE SIMPLE

SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 2026

EDITION NO. 6

PAGE 1 OF 1

TOP STORY

NASA Gets Ready to Launch New Space Telescope

CAPE CANAVERAL, FLA. — NASA will launch a new space telescope this weekend. It is called the Roman Space Telescope. Scientists will use it to study space. It can find planets far away. It also studies dark energy. Dark energy is a mystery force in space. Many people cannot wait to see the launch.

BACKGROUND

The telescope is named after Nancy Grace Roman, a NASA scientist.

Why it matters: It will help us learn new things about space.

What to watch: Watch for the launch this weekend.

MONEY & WORK

Fuel Costs More, and Schools Feel It Too

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Fuel prices have risen a lot this year. School buses need fuel every single day. Now schools must pay more money for fuel. This means less money for other things. Leaders are watching the fuel prices closely. They hope the prices will drop soon. Families might notice changes at their schools.

BACKGROUND

Fuel prices can rise for many reasons, including world events.

Why it matters: Higher fuel costs can mean less money for other school needs.

What to watch: Watch to see if fuel prices go down this fall.

SPORTS

Yankees Win a Close One Over Red Sox

NEW YORK, N.Y. — The Yankees played the Red Sox on Friday. The Yankees won the game, 1 to 0. It was a very close game. Fans cheered for both teams. The teams play again on Saturday. The next game starts at 1:05 in the afternoon.

BACKGROUND

The Yankees and Red Sox are rival baseball teams.

Why it matters: Winning close games helps a team in the standings.

What to watch: Watch to see who wins the next game.

Giants End Preseason With a Big Win

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — The Giants played their last preseason game on Friday. They beat the Jets by a score of 23 to 6. A rookie kicker made three field goals. Two players scored touchdowns for the team.

The defense played very well too. Now coaches must pick the final roster. Fans are excited for the season opener.

BACKGROUND

Preseason games help teams get ready before the real season starts.

Why it matters: This win helps player confidence before the season begins.

What to watch: Watch for the team's final roster this weekend.

OUR TEAMS

New York Yankees Yankees 1, Red Sox 0 (Final, Aug. 28)

The two teams play again Saturday at 1:05 p.m. at Yankee Stadium.

New York Giants Giants 23, Jets 6 (preseason finale, Aug. 28)

Giants finish the preseason 2-1 in John Harbaugh's first year as head coach.

GOOD NEWS

Colorful Music Mural House Becomes a Landmark

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF. — A house in San Francisco has a colorful mural. The mural shows musicians from the neighborhood. The city said the house is now a landmark.

This means it will be protected. People want to remember the neighborhood's music history. The house helps tell that story.

BACKGROUND

The neighborhood is called the Mission District. It has a long history of Latin music.

Why it matters: The landmark protects art and history for the future.

What to watch: People may visit the mural to see it in person.